Fist bumps relay 90 percent less germs than handshakes: study

(REUTERS) - Ditching handshakes in favor of more informal fist bumps could help cut down on the spread of bacteria and illnesses, according to a study released on Monday.

Seriously, wash your damn hands
This is Dick

Don't.
Be.
A.
Dick.
The Basics

Hold the door.

Keep your head up.

Pay attention.

Don’t block the hallway.

Don’t stand at the base of the escalator.
Don’t Be an Asshat

Don’t ruin everyone’s time
Don't Heckle

If you don't agree, talk afterwards.

See previous slide.
Ask Permission

FREE HUGS
Phones and Wireless

Seriously?
This is a hacker convention.
Use your head.
Pictures

See previous slide.

Expect to be in a picture or two.

Ask nicely if you don’t want to be in one.
Just because you see it laying out, does not mean you can take it.
Have a Plan

Read the program.

Hacker Tracker!

Talks fill up quickly. Consider purchasing the videos from TSOK.

Too many to list - here are some highlights.

• T.D.F. X-Hour Film Contest.
• Capture the Flag.
• No Badge Hack this year.
• Hack the contests - Hacker Convention, remember?
Workshops are training opportunities - usually hands on.

Demo Labs are brief introductions to open source tools and projects.
Def Con is unique.

Swag is Def Con branded stuff.

Vendors is a vendor hall. Each vendor has something to contribute to the hacker community.
DOUBLE DOG DARE

Reach out.

Put yourself out there.

Find someone with something you share.
TRIPLE DOG DARE

Do something you have never done before.

Try one of the villages.
